Are you interested in being apart of a Heisler Social Committee?

We are gathering if there is interest in volunteers to form a Social Committee within the next year. The goal of the committee is to organize and increase the number of social activities in the village on behalf of the residents.

Having a social committee could help create a strong community culture and atmosphere leading to positive and welcoming environment, and to bring together community residents.

Committee members take on responsibilities such as planning special events for the community and help to publish event information to the events and news areas of the website and newsletters and inform fellow residents.

If you are interested in being apart of this committee then please contact the Village office by email at administration@villageofheisler.ca or by phone at 780-889-3774.
